GORFINE, DR. H. L.

Dr. H. Lewis Gorfine

Dr. H. L. Gorfine, Dentist Since 1938, Dies at 58

Dr. H. Lewis Gorfine, 58, of 32 Harbour Terrace, Cranston, died yesterday at his home. He was the husband of Harriet (Shulkin) Gorfine.

A practicing dentist in Providence since 1938, Dr. Gorfine attended Providence College, Tufts Dental School and was graduated from the University of St. Louis Dental School in 1938.

He was a member of Temple Beth Torah, Cranston; Roosevelt Lodge 42, F and AM; Redwood Lodge 35, AF and AM; was a 32nd degree Mason, a shriner of the Palestine Temple, a member of the Sojournist Masonic Order, Ledgemont Country Club, the Providence District Dental Association, the Rhode Island Dental Association and the American Dental Association. He belonged to The Children's Society of Dentistry, was a member of the staff of The Miriam Hospital and the courtesy staff of the Osteopathic General Hospital in Cranston.

In 1940, he helped set up the dental department at Fort Adams for the Rhode Island Coast Artillery. During World War II he served with the 8th Air Corps in England as a captain and oral surgeon.

Born in Malden, Mass., a son of the late Jacob and Sadie (Cohen) Gorfine, he came to Providence in 1932. He had been a Cranston resident for 21 years.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a son, Marc Gorfine of Boston; a daughter, Bethany Gorfine, at home; two brothers, Dr. Samuel Gorfine and Dr. I. Sydney Gorfine, both of Providence; and a sister, Mrs. Louis Kirshenbaum of Providence.

A funeral service will be held today at noon at Temple Beth Torah, 330 Park Ave., Cranston. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
