GRABOYS,
Rebecca

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 17, 1994

REBECCA S. GRABOYS, 89, of Highland Court died Monday at Miriam Hospital. She was the widow of Lewis M. Graboys.

Born in Russia, a daughter of the late Abraham and Sarah Sobiloff, she lived in Fall River, Mass., for many years before moving to Providence seven years ago.

Mrs. Graboys was president of the Sisterhood at Temple Beth-El, and president of the Hebrew Ladies Helping-Hand Society, Fall River. She was a volunteer for the Society for the Blind.

She leaves a daughter, Marilynne G. Wool of New London, Conn.; two sons, George Graboys of Barrington, and Dr. Thomas B. Graboys of Brookline, Mass.; a sister, Lee Cohen of Spartanburg, S.C.; seven grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren. She was mother of the late Helen Sue Graboys, and sister of the late Jack Sobiloff.

A graveside service will be held today at 1 p.m. at Hebrew Cemetery, Fall

THE PROVIDENCE JOURNAL-BULLETIN

GRABOYS, Rebecca S. (Sobiloff)

August 15, 1994. Age. 89. Of 100 Highland Ave., Providence, R.I. Wife of the late Lewis M. Graboys. Funeral Services will be held Wednesday at 1 o'clock at Graveside in Hebrew Cemetery, (Fish Rd.) Fall River, Mass. The Memorial Period will be observed at the home of her son George Graboys, 2 Terrace Dr., Barrington, R.I. through Thursday from 2-4 and 7-9 p.m. Donations may be made to the Lown Cardio-Vascular Reserch Foundation, 21 Longwood Ave., Brooklyn, Mass. 02146. Arrangements by the Fisher Memorial Chapel of Fall River.