MRS. IDA GRAUBART

Woman Prominent in Jewish Fraternities Dead at 81

Mrs. Ida (Barton) Graubart of 220 Blackstone Boulevard, a member of several Hebrew and charitable organizations in Providence, died this morning. She was in her 81st year.

Born in Austria, daughter of the late Herschel and Matilda Barton, she had been a resident of Providence for 46 years.

Mrs. Graubart was a life member of the Jewish Home for the Aged, and a member of Providence Chapter of Hadassah, the Miriam Hospital Association, the Montefiore Ladies' Hebrew Benevolent Association, the Ladies' Hebrew Union Aid Association, the Sisterhood of Temple Beth David, the Providence Hebrew Sheltering Society, the Tiberius Society for the Blind, and the ladies' auxiliaries of the Sons of Zion and the Jewish Orphanage.

She was the widow of David Graubart, and is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Matilda Irving, with whom she lived; three sons, Meyer Graubart of Providence, Maurice Graubart of Schenectady, N.Y., and Sam Graubart of Wilkes-Barre, Pa.; 10 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Sunday morning at 10:30 at her home. Rabbi Carol Klein of Sons of Jacob Synagogue and Rabbi William G. Braude of Temple Beth El will officiate. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery.
