PROVIDENCE — Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon in the Sugarman Memorial Chapel for Mrs. Sylvia Grebstein, 70, of 260 Vermont Ave. Mrs. Grebstein, wife of Sigmund Grebstein, died Friday in Miriam Hospital.

She was the mother of Lawrence Grebstein of Kingston, professor of psychology and director of the psychological consultation center at the University of Rhode Island, and Sheldon Grebstein of Binghamton, N.Y., dean of the College of Arts & Sciences at the University of New York at Binghamton.

Mrs. Grebstein was a life member of Congregation Shaare Zedek-Sons of Abraham, and the Jewish Home for the Aged. She was also a member of the Jewish Federation of Rhode Island and the Jewish War Veterans Auxiliary, Post 23.

A Providence resident since 1925, she was born in Russia March 6, 1907, a daughter of the late Benjamin and Adele Skotkin.

Besides her husband and sons, she is survived by a brother, Samuel Scott of Hollywood, Fla., and four grandchildren.

Burial was in Lincoln Park.
