GREEN, NORMA

PSJ

8-1-10

PROVIDENCE

GREEN, NORMA (BERGER), 84, devoted mother, grandmother, writer and artist died on July 28, 2010 in Arlington, Virginia of natural causes.

Born in Providence, in 1925, Norma received her BFA in Apparel Design from the RISD in 1945. She taught at the Famous Artist School in Westport, Connecticut and was the author of several children's books. Norma was an accomplished artist and had numerous exhibits featuring her watercolor paintings.

Former wife of Norman Green, daughter of Dr. Albert and Florence Berger, she is survived by her sons, John and William, her sister, Dorothy Friar, daughter-in-law, Michelle; three grandchildren and many devoted friends.

Services private.