SIDNEY GREEN, 82, of Cole Avenue, a former business owner, and a founder of the organization now called Operation Clean Government, died Monday at Miriam Hospital.

He was the husband of Tedi (Cohen) Green. Born in Providence, a son of the late Abraham and Jennie (Shapiro) Green, stepson of the late Minnie Green, he was a lifelong resident of the city.

He was a 1938 graduate of Hope High School.

Mr. Green was a self-employed dealer in general merchandise. He had owned Hub Wholesale and Atlas Home Supply Inc., before retiring in 1969, and later had worked at National Wholesale Co., in New Bedford, Mass.

He was a founder and board member of the former Rhode Island Taxpayers Association, which later became Operation Clean Government, and had been named to serve on The Providence Commission.

Mr. Green was a member and past president of The William Gates Cutler Olympic Club, a charter member of the Crestwood Country Club, and a member of the Touro Fraternal Association.

He was a 32nd-degree member of Redwood Lodge 35, AF&AM, in East Providence.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Geoffrey Green of San Francisco, Calif. He was the brother of the late Samuel Green, Mitzi Baruth and Ann Guy, and a stepbrother of the late Benjamin and Joseph Green and Irene Polofsky.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at noon in the Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in the Sharon Memorial Park, Sharon, Mass.
