BENJAMIN GREENBERG

Funeral services for Benjamin Greenberg, 81, of 834 Ocean Drive, Miami Beach, Fla., who died Feb. 1 in Miami, were held Feb. 3 at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery. The husband of Julia (Burke) Greenberg of Miami Beach, he was a former resident of 140 Prospect Street, Providence.

He was born in Russia Feb. 12, 1884, a son of the late Rubin and Rachael Greenberg. He had been a resident of Miami Beach for the last six months. He was a resident of Providence for 20 years, and, prior to that, a resident of Pawtucket and Central Falls for 50 years.

He was the former proprietor of the Hotel Grille, Exchange Street, Pawtucket, until 1949. He had also been a self-employed confectionery salesman for 16 years.

He was a former member of Congregation Ohawe Sholam, Pawtucket; a member of Congregation Mishkon Tfiloh of Providence; formerly a member of B'nai B'rith. He was also active in many civic associations in Pawtucket and Central Falls.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a son, Alexander I. Greenberg of Saugus, Mass.; a daughter, Mrs. Milton Weinberg of Dorchester, Mass.; and eight grandchildren.
