PJ B 4-3-08

The Providence Journal

PROVIDENCE

GREENBERG, HERMAN "HANK", 83, of Capital Ridge Assisted Living, died Wednesday. Born in Providence, a son of the late Benjamin and Sarah (Sandler) Greenberg, he had lived in East Providence for 14 Years, previously living in Warwick for 27 years.

He was a WWII Army Veteran serving in the European, African and Middle Eastern Theatres. Herman was a member of Jewish War Veterans and Temple Torat Yisrael. He was a retired pharmacist.

Devoted father of Linda Susan Killian of Wilmington, NC, Jeffrey Tod Greenberg of Pawtucket and the late Howard Elliot Greenberg. Dear brother of the late Sondra Flink. Adored grandfather of 7. Cherished uncle of Henry Flink.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 2:00 p.m. in SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Avenue, Cranston. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to American Diabetes Association, 222 Richmond Street, Suite 204, Providence, RI 02903. Shiva will be observed at the home of Jeffrey Greenberg, 72 Greeley St., Pawtucket, Sat. 7-9 and Sun. 2-4 & 6-8 p.m.