PJ-B 3-26-94

IRVING GREENBERG, 68, of 157 Glen Hills Drive, an assistant administrator at the Institute of Mental Health for 25 years, retiring five years ago, died Thursday at Rhode Island Hospital. He was the husband of Gladys (Brotman) Greenberg.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Joseph and Anna (Beck) Greenberg, he had lived in Cranston the last 40 years.

Mr. Greenberg was a World War II Army veteran, having served in the Signal Corps. He was a 1947 graduate of Bryant College and a member of the Touro Fraternal Association. He was a member of the Jewish War Veterans House 23, the Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association, Temple Torat Yisrael and the Cranston Senior Guild. He had belonged to the former Temple Beth Israel.

Besides his wife he leaves two sons, Howard M. Greenberg of Plainview, N.Y., and Robert S. Greenberg of Warwick; a daughter, Marlene L. DiPrete of Lincoln; and four grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Florence Resnick. The funeral was held yesterday at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, Providence. Burial was at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

GREENBERG, Irving

GREENBERG, Irving

March 24, 1994. Residence 157 Glen Hills Dr. Cranston. Beloved husband of Gladys (Brotman) Greenberg. Devoted father of Howard M. Greenberg of Plainview, NY. Marlene L. DiPrete of Lincoln and Robert S. Greenberg of Warwick. Dear brother of the late Florence Resnick, loving grandfather of Melissa, Cindy, Allison and Adam. Funeral services were held Friday at the MAX SUGARMAN MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope St. (corner of Doyle Ave.) In lieu of flowers contributions in his memory may be made to your favorite charity. Shiva will not be observed due to the Passover Holiday.