OBITUARY

The Evening Bulletin, Wednesday, August 8, 1979

OBITUARIES

GREENBERG, LEO

Leo Greenberg

President of jewelry firm was former chairman of Touro Fraternal Assn.

WARWICK — Leo Greenberg, 75, of 1403 Warwick Ave., died unexpectedly yesterday morning at his home. He was the husband of Estelle (Perlman) Greenberg.

Born in New York City on Jan. 16, 1904, he was a son of the late Morris and Lena Greenberg. He had lived in Providence for more than 30 years and in Warwick for the last 20 years.

He was a member of the board of directors and past chairman of Touro Fraternal Association, New England's largest independent Jewish fraternal association. He also was chairman of the association's finance committe for many years.

Mr. Greenberg was an honorary member of the board of directors of the Manufacturing Jewelers Sales Association. He founded the Dickson Manufacturing Company of Providence, a jewelry manufacturing company, more than 50 years ago, and was president of the company at the time of his death.

He was a member of the board of trustees of the Jewish Home for the Aged, a past chairman of the board of directors of the Congregation Shaare Zedek-Sons of Abraham, a member of the Redwood Lodge F&AM, the Palestine Shrine and the Knights of Pythias.

Besides his wife, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. Lowell Leven of New Haven, Conn.; three brothers, Sidney and Saul Greenberg, both of New York City, and Morton Greenberg of Fort Lauderdale, Fla.; a sister, Mrs. Cele Green of New York City, and three granddaughters.

Funeral services were to be held today at 2 p.m. from the Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial was to be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.