GREENBERG
Lillian

PSJ 6-7-1998

Cranston woman is killed in Providence auto accident

CRANSTON — Lillian M. Greenberg, 76, of Auburn Street, died yesterday after being struck by an automobile in Kennedy Plaza, Providence. She was the wife of the late Herbert Greenberg.

Mrs. Greenberg was crossing the street toward the center of the plaza yesterday at about 10:40 a.m. when she was struck by a 1985 Cadillac driven by Earl Ransom, whose age and hometown police did not release. She was taken to Rhode Island Hospital, where she died yesterday afternoon.

The accident remains under investigation.

Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Samuel and Ida Rosenstein, she had lived in Cranston for 25 years.

Mrs. Greenberg was a member of Congregation Shaare Zedek-Sons of Abraham in Providence.

She leaves three sons, Alan Greenberg of Warwick, Elliot Greenberg of Cranston and Douglas Greenberg of West Warwick; a brother, Benjamin Rosenstein of Providence; and two grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Rose Rosner and Pauline Rothman.

The funeral will be held Tuesday at 11 a.m. in Mount Siani Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

V

GREENBERG, Lillian M. (Rosenstein)

June 6, 1998. Beloved wife of the late Herbert Greenberg. Residence: 314 Auburn St., Cranston. Dear mother of Alan Greenberg, Warwick; Elliot Greenberg, Cranston and Douglas Greenberg, West Warwick. Dear sister of Benjamin Rosenstein, Providence and the late Rose Rosner and Pauline Rothman. Devoted grandmother of Stacy and Joshua. Funeral Service 11AM Tuesday at MOUNT SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 825 Hope at 4th Sts. Relatives and friends are invited. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Jewish War Veterans of America.