

GREENBERG, LOUIS

Louis N. Greenberg, 84

BOYNTON BEACH, Fla. - Louis Greenberg, formerly of Rhode Island, died July 2. He was the husband of Arline (Kornovsky) Greenberg.

Born in Providence to Ida (Mover) and Philip Greenberg, he lived in Rhode Island before moving to Florida 23 years ago. He had worked as a radio and sports announcer on WSAR in Fall River, Mass., before working as a teacher and counselor for the Warwick School Department.

A veteran of World War II,

he was a member of the Jewish War Veterans, and a former member of Temple Torat Yisrael (formerly Beth Torah) of Cranston and Temple Emeth in Delray Beach, Fla.

He graduated with honors from the University of Rhode Island, where he was elected to Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He received his master's in guidance and counseling from Northeastern University.

An avid sports enthusiast, he followed the Patriots, the Red Sox and the Celtics - and most recently, the Miami Heat. When he was able, he enjoyed tennis, golf and bike riding.

Besides his wife, he is survived by his sons Mark and his wife Susan of Temecula, Calif., and Jeffrey and his wife Sherri of Tampa, Fla.; his grandchildren Jacquelyne, Philicia, Shea, Adrian and Katie; and his great-granddaughter Charlotte. He leaves many nieces and nephews. He was the brother of the late Max and Isadore (Archie) Greenberg and Rebecca (Betty) Goldstein. Contributions may be made to the charity of one's choice.
