OBITUARIES

Harry Greenspan

Operated Greenspan's Pharmacy in South Providence for 40 years

PLANTATION, Fla. — Harry Greenspan, 83, formerly of 181 Concord Ave., Cranston, before moving to Florida a year ago, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital, Providence, after an illness. He was the husband of Nan (Goldstein) Greenspan.

Mr. Greenspan owned and operated the former Greenspan's Drugstore at Prairie Avenue and Public Street in Providence for 40 years until retiring 20 years ago.

Born in Providence, he was a son of the late Morris and Mary (Greenfield) Greenspan. He lived in Providence until moving to Cranston six years ago.

Mr. Greenspan was a member of the Rhode Island Pharmaceutical Association, the Touro Fraternal Association, and a 40-year member of the Metacomet Country Club.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Dr. Michael Greenspan of New York City; a daughter, Paula Rubien of Narragansett; and four grandchildren.

The funeral service will be Thursday at 11 a.m. at Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
