OBITUARIES

GREENWALD, MARTIN L.

M.L. Greenwald, 52; attorney and ex-broadcaster

WARWICK — Martin L. Greenwald, 52, of 102 Ann Mary Brown Drive, a partner in the law firm of Selya, Iannuccillo & Greenwald, and a former local radio and television personality known as Larry Martin, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital after a nine-month illness. He was the husband of Celma G. (Davidson) Greenwald.

A 1950 graduate of Brown University, he was a disk jockey for radio station WJAR, and a newscaster and sports announcer for WJAR-TV, Channel 10, from 1954 to 1959 while he attended Boston University Law School.

A World War II Navy veteran, Mr. Greenwald was a member of the American and Rhode Island Bar Associations, and held a doctorate in law. He was a volunteer at the Trudeau Center.

Mr. Greenwald was a member of the University Club and the Motion Picture Theater Critics Guild. He was a former reporter for Ring magazine.

Born in Middletown, N.Y., he was a son of Evelyn Greenwald of Middletown, and the late Joseph Greenwald.

Besides his wife and mother, he leaves three daughters, Lisa B. Greenwald of Vernon, Conn., Jo Ann Greenwald of Summit, N.J., and Tracy J. Greenwald of Warwick; a brother, Stuart Greenwald of Middletown, and a sister, Mrs. Linda Lynwander of New Jersey.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Sinai Memorial Park.
