Ellen Diane Grober

Was the president, treasurer of GGG Incorporated in Conn.

WESTPORT, Conn. — Ellen Diane Grober, 36, formerly of Providence, died yesterday at Rhode Island Hospital after an illness.

Born in Passaic, N.J., a daughter of Abraham and Joan (Feldman) Grober of Providence, she had lived in Westport five years, previously residing in New York City and Providence.

She was a 1976 graduate of Brown University and in 1978 was graduated with honors from Wharton School of Finance with an MBA.

She was president and treasurer of GGG Incorporated of Fairfield, Conn., which deals in estate liquidations. The company was recently recognized as one of the 2,500 best managed small privately held companies in the nation. Miss Grober was also a licensed gemologist and a member of the International Society of Appraisers. She was a member of the Brown Alumni Club, the Wharton Alumni Club, the Audubon Society, and Greenpeace.

Her parents are her only immediate survivors.

The funeral service will be held Sunday at noon at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Congregation Sons of Israel and David Cemetery, Reservoir Avenue, Providence.
