Nathan H. Grober

Founded wire and cable company and opened a plant in W. Warwick

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. — Nathan H. Grober, 91, of 1500 Bay Rd., who founded Victor Electric Wire and Cable Corp. in Clifton, N.J., which opened a plant in West Warwick 31 years ago, and who was chairman of its board until retiring 20 years ago, died Sunday at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of the late Rose (Bershadsky) Grober.

Born in Lynn, Mass., he was a son of the late Maxwell and Ethel D. (Fink) Grober. He had been a resident of the Providence area for 18 years before moving to Florida 15 years ago.

Mr. Grober attended Cooper Union College, N.Y., and was a member of a Masonic Lodge in New York City and of Palestine Shrine.

He leaves two sons, Abraham and Marvin J. Grober, both of Palm Beach, two grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

The funeral was to be held today at 2 p.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial was to be in Congregation Sons of Israel and David Cemetery, Providence.

GROBER, Nathan