GROSSMAN, Anna

ANNA GROSSMAN, 68, of 84 Homer St., died yesterdayat home. She was the wife of Myer Grossman.

Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Hyman and Rose (Herschowitz) Malachowsky, she was a lifelong resident of Providence. Mrs. Grossman was a member of Temple Torat Yisrael.

Besides her husband she leaves two sons, Paul Grossman of Cumberland, Va., and Maurice Grossman of Marlton, N.J.; a daughter, Anita Olinsky of Cranston; a brother, Joseph Mal, and a sister, Fay Dress, both of Providence, and two grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Abraham Mal and Leo Mal.

The funeral will be held today at 3:30 p.m. in the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

GROSSMAN, Anna (Malachowsky)

October 17, 1995. Residence: 84 Homer St., Providence. Beloved wife of Myer Grossman. Devoted mother of Paul Grossman of Cumberland, VA; Maurice Grossman of Marlton, NJ; and Anita Olinsky of Cranston and the mother-in-law of Alan Olinsky. Dear sister of Joseph Mal and Fay Dress both of Providence and the late Abraham and Leo Mal. Loving grandmother of Benjamin and Reuben Olinsky. Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 3:30 p.m. at the MAX SUGARMAN MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope Street (Corner of Doyle Ave.). In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to VNA-Hospice, 157 Waterman Street, Providence 02906 or Temple Torat Yisrael, 330 Park Avenue, Cranston 02905. Shiva will be observed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Olinsky, 107 Dellwood Road, Cranston 2-4 and 7-9 p.m.