GROSSMAN, CLINTON

BJB 4-19-10

PROVIDENCE

GROSSMAN, CLINTON, 93, died April 18, 2010. He resided at Laurelmead in Providence.

Born in Providence, he was the son of the late Bessie and Leo Grossman, beloved husband for 64 years of Helen (Freudenberg) Grossman, father of Barbara Wasserspring and Carol Bowman, father-in-law of Fredric Wasserspring and David Bowman, grandfather of Karen, Mark, Amy, Lester, Jeremy, and Michael, great-grandfather of Haylie, Alice, and Jared, brother of Stanley and the late Edward, Albert, and Maxwell Grossman.

A 1937 Graduate of Lowell Technical Institute, he majored in textile chemistry. He served in the US Army in World War II in Alaska. He worked as a textile chemist and was President of Lebanon Knitting Mills, a family business, until he retired in 1975. In retirement he attended classes at Rhode Island College for 15 years and was honored by the college in 2001 for his lifelong love of learning. Mr. Grossman was a member of Temple Beth El. He also did volunteer work at Miriam Hospital for many years. He was an avid world traveler.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday, April 20th at 2:00 PM in the SUGARMAN-SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope St., Providence with interment in Sharon Memorial Park. In lieu of flowers, friends may make a contribution in Mr. Grossman's memory to Miriam Hospital or Rhode Island College. Shiva will be observed at his late residence on Tuesday 7-9 and Wednesday 2-4 & 7-9 PM.