GROSSMAN, george M.

GEORGE M. GROSSMAN

Funeral services for the late George M. Grossman of 18 Belair Avenue, who died Friday morning, were held Sunday afternoon from his late home. Burial was in the Lincoln Park Cemetery with Rabbi Israel M. Goldman of Temple Emanu-El officiating. He was in his 53rd year.

Born in Russia, Mr. Grossman came to this country 40 years ago. Besides his wife and one daughter, Miss Marion D. Grossman, he leaves two sisters, Mrs. Emil Glick and Mrs. Belle Finn, and one brother, William Grossman, all of Chicago.

He was a member of Redwood Lodge of Masons and Providence chapter, Royal Arch Masons. For the past several years he had been employed in the shoe department of a downtown department store.
