GUNZBERG, LYNN MARIAN

PJB 7-5-02

GUNZBERG, Lynn Marian

July 4, 2002. Residence: 203 President Avenue, Providence. Beloved daughter of Arthur Samuel Gunzberg and the late Aline (DuBin) Gunzberg. Loving sister of Guy W. Gunzberg and wife Joan L. of Evanston, IL. Adored aunt of Adam W. and Corey A. Gunzberg, Chicago, IL. A Memorial Service will be held on Monday at 2:00 PM at Temple Beth El. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Planned Parenthood of RI, 111 Point Street, Providence, RI 02903. Memorial observance at her late residence following service and 7-9 PM and Tuesday 7-9 PM. The family was assisted with the arrangements by SUGARMAN-SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL.

LYNN MARIAN GUNZBERG, 58, of President Avenue, an associate dean at Brown Universtiy and an author, died Thursday at Miriam Hospital.

Born in Buffalo, N.Y., the daughter of Arthur S. Gunzberg of Nashville, Tenn., and the late Aline (DuBin) Gunzberg, she had lived in Buffalo before going to college and settling in Providence.

She was a graduate of Park School in Buffalo, and the University of Wisconsin, and received a master's degree and a Ph.D. from the University of California at Berkeley.

She was the author of Strangers at Home: Jews in the Italian Literary Imagination (University of California Press, 1992). She was formerly assistant professor of Italian studies at Brown. As fellowship coordinator at Brown, she successfully promoted students for national and international academic fellowships.

She was a member of Modern Language Association, American Association of Teachers of Italian, secretary of the board of Planned Parenthood of Rhode Island, and a board member of Temple Beth-El, the Rhode Island Chamber Music Concerts and the Providence Singers.

Besides her father, she leaves a brother, Guy W. Gunzberg of Evanston, Ill., and two nephews, Adam W. and Corey A. Gunzberg, both of Chicago.

A memorial service will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. in Temple Beth-El, 70 Orchard Ave. Burial will be private.