BERTHA (WOLF) HAHN, 102, of Hillside Avenue, died yesterday at Hillside Health Center.

She was the wife of the late William Hahn. Born in New Bedford, a daughter of the late Louis and Marsha (Sholovitz) Wolf, she had been a resident of Rhode Island since 1930, living in Newport and Warwick before moving to Providence in 2001.

She was a member of Temple Beth-El and its Sisterhood since 1950, and a life member of Hadassah. She was a former member of Touro Synagogue and Warwick Social Seniors.

She enjoyed reading until she was 100 years old, and was a great cook.

She leaves two sons, Charles Hahn of Providence and Murray Hahn of Boynton Beach, Fla., and six grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Abraham and George Wolf.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 9 a.m. in Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel. Burial will be in Temple Beth-El Cemetery.
