HERALD NEWS 6-4-1992

RUTH HALPERIN

PROVIDENCE — Ruth Halperin, 90, a resident of Metacom Manor Health Center, Bristol, died Wednesday, May 27, 1992, at Miriam Hospital. She was the wife of the late Harry Halperin.

Born in Hartford, Conn., she was a daughter of the late Louis and Clara (Schwartz) Kupperstein. She had resided in Bristol, R.I., since 1985 and had been a resident of Boston from 1927 through 1985.

A graduate of Lesley College of Cambridge, Mass., she had been a teacher in the Boston Public School system for 20 years, retiring in 1961. She was a member of the Women's College Club of Greater Boston and the choral group of Temple Sholom of Milton, Mass.

She is survived by two daughters, Carol Sholler of Barrington and Eleanor Landa of Walpole, Mass.; one brother, Ben Cooper of La Jolla, Calif.; four grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

Funeral services took place Friday, May 29, at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope Street, Providence. Burial took place at Sharon Memorial Park, Sharon, Mass.

HALPERIN, Ruth

JEWISH ADVOCATE

JUNE 12–18, 1992

JUNE 12–18, 1992

Ruth [illegible]alperin

Ruth (Kupperstein) Halperin, a retired Boston schoolteacher, died May 27 in Miriam Hospital in Providence, R.I. She was 90.

Born in Hartford, Conn., Halperin resided in Boston from 1927 to 1985 when she moved to Bristol, R.I. Her last residence was the Metacom Health Center in Bristol.

Halperin was a graduate of Lesley College in Cambridge. She taught in the Boston school system for 20 years before retiring in 1961. She was a former member of the Women's College Club of Greater Boston and the choral group of Temple Shalom in Milton.

Halperin leaves her daughters, Carol Scholler of Barrington, R.I. and Eleanor Landa of Walpole, and her brother, Ben Cooper of La Jolla, Calif. Funeral services were held May 29 at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel in Providence. Interment was at Sharon Memorial Park.