Louis J. Halpern

EAST GREENWICH — Louis J. Halpern, 84, of 945 Main St., owner of United Cleaners and Tailors, Pawtucket, for more than 30 years before his retirement five years ago, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of Rose (Botvin) Halpern.

Born in Russia, a son of the late Israel and Esther (Caruso) Halpern, he lived in Providence many years and in Pawtucket 15 years before moving to East Greenwich 15 months ago.

Mr. Halpern was a past president of the Touro Fraternal Association and a member of the Rhode Island Jewish Fraternal Association.

Besides his wife he leaves a son, Theodore Halpern of Cranston; a daughter, Mrs. Madeline Sirkin of Warwick; two sisters, Mrs. Eva Tesler of Attleboro and Mrs. Katherine Massover-Sollup of Providence; five grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

A graveside service will be held today at 11 a.m. at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

HALPERN, LOUIS J.
