The Evening Bulletin, Tuesday, May 17, 1977★★★★

OBITUARIES

Samuel Halpern

PROVIDENCE — Samuel Halpern, 80, of 23 Sargent Ave., died this morning in the Summit Medical Center after an illness of four months. He was the husband of Sylvia (Schwartz) Halpern.

He was associated with M. Hoffman Co. of Boston for more than 42 years in the capacity of salesman and vice president, and retired in 1975.

Born in New York March 27, 1897, he was a son of the late Abraham and Molly (Golding) Halpern and lived in Providence for 46 years.

Mr. Halpern was a member of Temple Eammanuel; was a member and past president of the Hebrew Free Loan Association and of the Rhode Island Trowel Club; a member of Redwood Lodge No. 35, A.F. & A.M., the Palestine Shrine and the New England Macs.

Besides his wife, survivors are a son, Jerome Halper of Coral Gables, Fla.; a daughter, Mrs. Shirley Feldman of Providence; two brothers, Mack Halpern and Jack Halpern, both of Miami; a sister, Miss Connie Halpern of Providence, four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. in the Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

HALPERN
Samuel