HALPERT, Murry

The Evening Bulletin, Tuesday, September 15, 1981

Obituaries

Murry M. Halpert, at 69; businessman, leader in state Jewish community

EAST PROVIDENCE — Murry M. Halpert, 69, of Four Seasons' Apartments, 29 Church St., formerly of Providence, was stricken at home today and died at Rhode Island Hospital. He was the husband of Bella (Goldenberg) Halpert.

Mr. Halpert was a retired vice president of Insurance Underwriters, Inc., Angell Street, Providence. He was a past president of Temple Beth-El and an honorary life member of the board of trustees of the temple; a member of the executive board of the board of directors of the Jewish Home for the Aged of Rhode Island; managing director and a member of the board and finance committee of Shalom Housing, Inc., of Warwick; a past president of the Jewish Community Center, Providence, and a past member of the board of the Jewish Family and Children's Service.

He was affiliated with the United Fund in various capacities for many years.

Born in Central Falls, he was a son of the late Samuel and Jennie (Sugerman) Halpert, and lived in Providence for more than 50 years before moving to East Providence three years ago.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Jonis K. Davis of Seattle, Wash., and Mrs. Ruth D. Hamann of Summit, N.J.; a son, Samuel D. Halpert of Ann Arbor, Mich.; a brother, Israel G. Halpert of New York City and three grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held at noon tomorrow at Temple Beth-El, Orchard Avenue, Providence. Burial will be in Temple Beth-El Cemetery, Reservoir Avenue, Providence.