Irene J. Hanna

Irene Hanna, of Cumberland, passed away Wednesday, July 25, 2012 after a long illness. Irene was born in Middletown, NY on October 13, 1932 of the late Morris and Molly Jabitsky. She was the devoted and loving wife of Alexander Hanna and mother to four children.

Besides her husband Alexander, she leaves her daughters, Pauline Finkelstein, Caroline Matera, Cynthia Goldman and Heather Hanna, two grandchildren, Jenna and Meilin Goldman and three sisters, Blanche Hirsch, Libby Chandros and Marcia Quinlog.

After graduating from Orange County Community College in 1952, she worked as a librarian in the New York Public Library System, where she read childrens stories at the Saturday morning story hour. After her marriage in 1954, her skills in story reading gave her young children many happy hours. She was also an excellent household manager, an avid cookbook collector and devoted yard sale aficionado.

A kinder wife and mother there never was.

Irene was interred at Beth Israel Cemetery, Woodbridge, NJ ande reposa en ganeden enjuntos con Sara, Rivka, Rahel, Leah, i las otras madres de Israel. Alabado sea muestro Dio alto ke mos dio mas de cinkuenta ocho anyos de alegria.
