HANZEL, ALBERT

PJB 12-18-04

Providence

ALBERT HANZEL, 85, of Angell Street, a retired shoe store owner, died Thursday at Miriam Hospital.

He was the husband of Pearl (Garfinkel) Hanzel. They had been married for 59 years. Born in Providence, a son of the late William and Kate (Cushner) Hanzel, he was a lifelong resident of the city.

He had been the owner of the former Harbar's Shoes, in Wayland Square, before retiring in 1985.

He was a graduate of Hope High School and had attended the University of Rhode Island.

He was a member of Temple Emanu-El.

Besides his wife, he leaves two daughters, Harriet Cole of Natick, Mass., and Barbara Marks of Bedford, N.Y.; a sister, Lillian Stein of Natick; and four grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Sydney, Harold, Leo, Bernard, Minnie and Sadie Hanzel.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. in the Priest Chapel of Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

HANZEL, Albert

December 16, 2004. Beloved husband of Pearl (Garfinkel) Hanzel. Residence Angell St., Providence. Dear father of Harriet Cole (Alan), Natick, MA and Barbara Marks (Alan), Bedford, NY. Loving brother of Lillian Stein, Natick, MA. Devoted grandfather to Lisa, Rebecca, Harrison and Eleanor. Funeral Service Sunday at 2:00 PM at the Priest Chapel at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Post Rd., Warwick. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to your favorite charity. Calling hours at Epoch, 1 Butler Ave., Providence Sunday 4-6 PM. The family was assisted with the arrangements by SUGARMAN-SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL.