LEO HANZEL

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. — Leo Hanzel, 69, of 8424 Verree Rd., manager of the former King's Department Store for 20 years before retiring five years ago, died October 9, 1989, at Frankfort Hospital. He was the husband of Hilda (Gilden) Hanzel.

Born in Providence, a son of the late William and Katie (Kushner) Hanzel, he lived in Philadelphia for 19 years.

Mr. Hanzel was an Army veteran of World War II, and a member of the Kelkey Jewish War Veterans Post. He was a member of the former Temple Beth David in Rhode Island, and was a member of Beth Chaim Synagogue, Feisterville, and its Men's Club. He was a member of the United Jewish Appeal.

Besides his wife he leaves three daughters, Rhoda Kelly of Warwick, Roberta Hanzel of Farmington, N.M., and Lynda Herman of Cherry Hill, N.J.; a sister, Lillian Stein of Woonsocket; two brothers, Dr. Harold Hanzel of Cranston, Albert Hanzel of Providence, and four grandchildren.

The funeral service was held Wednesday, October 11, at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Cemetery, Warwick.

RI Hist. 10-19-89

HANZEL, LEO