THE EVENING BULLETIN

OBITUARIES

11-14-85

Sydney Hanzel; confectioner also was trumpet player

HANZEL, SYDNEY

BRICKTOWN, N.J. — Sydney Hanzel, 77, of Graham Court, died Monday in Lakewood Hospital after a day's illness. He was the husband of Beatrice (Reiss) Hanzel.

Mr. Hanzel was born in Providence a son of the late William and Katie (Kushner) Hanzel.

He was owner of Candy Mart, Inc. based in Providence, and the Rhode Island Confectionary Company in Providence. A member of local 198 American Federation of Musicians, he played trumpet with orchestras throughout New England for many years. He was a member of B'nai B'rith and its president for five years.

Besides his wife he leaves a son, Bruce Hanzel of Norwalk, Conn.; a daughter, Carol Hanzel of New York; three brothers, Dr. Harold Hanzel of Cranston, Albert Hanzel of Providence, and Leo Hanzel of Philadelphia, Pa.; a sister, Lillian Stein of Woonsocket, and three grandchildren.

The funeral was held in Lakewood. Burial was in Mount Ararat Cemetery, Farmingdale, L.I.N.Y.