BERTHA HARRIET, 100, of 99 Hillside Ave., a retired sales associate, died Thursday at home.

She was the wife of the late Max Harriet. Born in Russia, the daughter of the late William and Gussie (Steinberg) Kolodney, she had lived in Providence since emigrating from Russia at the age of 5.

Mrs. Harriet had been employed as a sales associate at various retail stores in Providence until her retirement.

She was a member of Temple Emanu-El.

She leaves two daughters, Arline "Bunny" Feldman of Providence and Grace Hirsch in Florida; two brothers, Samuel and Harry Kolodney, both of Providence; and four grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Dr. Joseph Kolodney.

A graveside service will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
