ESTHER HARRIS, 93, a resident of the Pawtuxet Village Nursing Home for the last two years, and formerly of 940 Namquid Drive, died Thursday at the home.

Born in Attleboro, Mass., a daughter of the late Morris and Nellie (Livingston) Sholes, she lived in Warwick for over 40 years. She was a graduate of the former Bryant and Stratton Business College, now Bryant College. She had been an office manager for a wire manufacturing company in Boston and she had been a plant manager for a silk mill in Pawtucket. She had been a manager of Sholes Riverview Roller Rink in Boston.

Mrs. Harris was a former member of Temple Torat Yisrael of Cranston and a former member of Temple Am David in Warwick. She was a member of Pioneer Women. She was a life member of the Women's Association of the Jewish Home for the Aged. She was a member of the Cranston Senior Guild and a member of the Majestic Senior Guild. She was a member of the Warwick Social Seniors. She was an avid reader.

She leaves a son, Elliot Harris, of San Diego, Calif.; a brother Leonard J. Sholes, of Cranston; three sisters, Bessie Lipson of Warwick, Evelyn Kagan of Quincy, Mass., and Alyce Guthart of Newington, Conn.; two grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Sampson Sholes and the late Bertha Aron.

The funeral service will be tomorrow at 1 p.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery in Warwick.

HARRIS,
Esther
