Melvin Hart, 70; killed after he was struck by auto in Cranston

CRANSTON — Melvin Hart, 70, of Scituate Vista Drive, a self-employed automobile sales representative before he retired 12 years ago, died Thursday after being hit by a car as he walked along Scituate Avenue. He was the husband of Yvonne F. (Joyal) Hart, the late Goldie Gerstein and the late Beatrice Perlow.

Born in Revere, Mass., a son of the late Meyer and Emma Cohen, he had lived in Pawtucket before moving to Cranston 12 years ago.

Mr. Hart was a graduate of Burdett Business School of Massachusetts. He was an Army veteran of World War II. He was president of the Scituate Vista Tenants Association and a member of the AARP.

Besides his wife, he leaves three daughters, Brenda Fucillo of Belmont, Mass., Susan McHugh of Burlington, Mass., and Paula Rezendes of Woonsocket; a brother, Leonard Cohen of Swamscutt, Mass.; a sister, Rona Sher of Burlington, Mass.; and four grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Sam Cohen.

The funeral service will be held Monday at 1:30 p.m. in Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Swan Point Cemetery, Providence.
