Petition Scores Colonel Lindbergh

Goldstein Asks Biddle To "Expatriate" Him

WASHINGTON—A petition urging the expatriation of Charles A. Lindbergh was left with Attorney General Biddle this week by Joseph Goldstein, former City Magistrate of Kings County, and now, according to his own description, "counsel to the Voluntary Public Defender Committee" of that county.

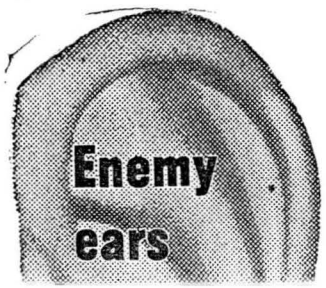

The Goldstein petition asked that Colonel Lindbergh had received decorations and medals from Hitler and Mussolini in 1936, and alleged that these were "marks of esteem and love for Nazi Germany and Fascist Italy," as well as for Hitler and Mussolini.

Mr. Goldstein said he would seek a bill to deprive Colonel Lindbergh of the Congressional Medal awarded to him in 1933.

Attorney General Biddle had "no comment" on the petition.

BETH-ISRAEL DAUGHTERHOOD

Plans for a weekly series of dances for servicemen were discussed last Monday by the Daughterhood of Temple Beth-Israel. Miss Claire Bosler, hostess for the evening, was in charge of a program of entertainment.

Gets Overseas Post

ST. LOUIS—Rabbi Ferdinand M. Isserman has received a six months leave of absence from Temple Israel here to go overseas with the Red Cross. On March 1 he will report in Washington and shortly thereafter will leave for overseas.

Touro Flying Fortress Fund Now $156,000

Touro Fraternal Association in its drive to sell $250,000 in War Bonds has reached $156,000, Leo Miller, president of the organization announced this week. When the goal is realized, the Association will have a Flying Fortress bomber named after it and a picture of the plane will be presented to Touro by the State War Bond Committee.

The Association is attempting to be the first local organization honored in this unique fashion, Paul Goldstein, Touro War Bond chairman, revealed. He also stated that

Hundreds Attend Hassenfeld Services

Manufacturer Was Active in Community

Funeral services for Helal Hassenfeld, 57, of 50 Balton Road, who died this week after a long illness, were held Thursday afternoon from Temple Emanuel. Rabbi Israel M. Goldman and Rabbi Morris Schussheim officiated at the ceremonies. Burial was in the family plot in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

Born in Austria, Mr. Hassenfeld came to this country and settled in Providence in 1914. With his brother Henry he entered the manufacturing busienss and was one of the pioneers in the field of pencils and school supplies. He was president of the firm Hassenfeld Brothers whose plant is now located on Broad street Central Falls.

Mr. Hassenfeld was active in communal affairs and until his illness was a partcipating member of many organizations, including the Community Fund, the Providence Zionist District, the Miriam Hospital Corporation of which he was treasurer, Temples Emanuel and Bet-Israel, Shriners, Masons, Hebrew Free Loan Association, the Jewish Home for Aged, the Community Center.

He is survived by his wife Mrs. Esther (Margolis) Hassenfeld; two daughters, Misses Charlotte and Marion Hassenfeld; three brothers, Herman, Henry and Israel Hassenfeld and one sister, Mrs. Esther Oelbaum, all of Providence.

Dies in 57th Year

HELAL HASSENFELD

Odd Advertisement Solves Servant Problem; Brown Graduate Finds Use for Philosophy

NEW YORK—A former Brown University graduate, Norman Dine, who studied philosophy and sociology this week, with the aid of his wife, solved the domestic problem in his home. They sat down to study their situation and decided they were the victims of a sudden social evolution.

"We finally figured out," Mr. Dine explained this week, "that the war cratic. Modern, warm, 7-room house with all labor-saving devices; private room, bath, and plenty of time for yourself; radio, library, piano available; white or colored, any nationality; $85 monthly; we can supply excellent references from previous housekeeper.

By 9 o'clock the following morning, Mr. Dine and his secretaries we

THE JEWISH HERALD

The Jewish Home Newspaper Rhode Island. Published Eve Week in the Year by the Jewi Press Publishing Company.

Subscription Rates: Five Cents t Copy; By Mail, $2.00 per Annu

Walter Rutman, Managing Edito

76 Dorrance St., Tel. GAspee 431 Case-Mead Building.

Entered as Second-Class Matter the Post Office, Providence, R. Under the Act of March 3, 187

The Jewish Herald invites corr spondence on subjects of intere to the Jewish people but disclain of the views expressed by t responsibility for an indorseme

Obituary

MRS. BERNARD KAPSTEIN

Funeral services for Mrs. Fan (Silver) Kapstein, 60, of 47 Ogd street, wife of Bernard Kapste and mother of Dr. Israel J. Kap tein, of Brown University, were he last week from the Max Sugarm Funeral Home. Rabbis Israel Goldman and Morris G. Silk o ficiated and burial was in Linco Park Cemetery.

Mrs. Kapstein came to this cou try 45 years ago and lived in P vidence for 30 years. She was members of the Ladies' Union A Ahavath Sholom Synagogue and Sisterhood.

Besides her husband and Dr. Ka stein, she is survived by two oth sons, Pvt. Samuel A. Kapstein, st tioned in Chanute Field, Ill., and J John J. Kapstein, stationed at Av Park Bombing Range, Fla.; t daughters, Mrs. Jack Pritsker a Miss Grace Kapstein; three siste Mrs. Louis Kortick and Mrs. Hin Guy, both of Providence, and M Hyman Bedrick, of Fall River; brother, Samuel Silver, of Pro