6-7-60

Obituary

MRS. HENRY J. HASSENFELD

Funeral services for Mrs. Marion (Frank) Hassenfeld, of 767 Elmgrove Avenue, who died June 7 after an extended illness, were held the following day at Temple Emanuel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

Mrs. Hassenfeld, wife of Henry J. Hassenfeld, prominent industrialist and communal leader of Rhode Island, was a native of Providence. Born on Nov. 5, 1896, she was the daughter of the late David and Minnie (Swartz) Frank. She was a leader in civic, philanthropic and cultural activities, locally and nationally, for many years.

She was a member of Temple Beth Israel, Temple Emanuel and Congregation Shaare Zedek. Her activities embraced numerous local and national charities which she served in varying capacities.

Her home was the center of a multitude of cultural activities and charitable functions. She manifested deep interest in the affairs of Brandeis University, the Jewish Theological Seminary of America and Brown University and she was especially active in the affairs of the General Jewish Committee of Providence, and Hadassah.

She is survived by her husband, who is president of the General Jewish Committee of Providence; two sons, Harold I. Hassenfeld of Nashville, Tenn., and Merrill L. Hassenfeld of Providence; one daughter, Mrs. Leonard Engle of Pawtucket; two sisters, Mrs. Daniel Fenton of Los Angeles, Calif., and Mrs. Charles J. Fox of Providence; a brother, Jacob Frank of Providence and 11 grandchildren.