RABBI IGNACE HAUSER

Funeral services for Rabbi Ignace Hauser, 85, of 217 Rochambeau Avenue, who died Tuesday, were held the following day at Temple Beth Sholom. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery. He was the husband of Bessie (Levine) Hauser.

Born in Czechoslovakia, he was a son of the late Michuel and Tania Hauser. He was a Providence resident for the past 10 years and was associated with Temple Beth Sholom as a cantor and reader of Torah.

He was ordained a rabbi in Czechoslovakia and had been a rabbi in Vienna from 1913 to 1939. He then spent one and one-half years at Dachau Concentration Camp, after which he was allowed to come to this country. For seven years he was associated with Congregation Sons of Israel in Amsterdam, N.Y. Prior to coming to Providence, he was a rabbi in Lynn, Mass.

For more than 60 years of his life and up to the time of his death his avocation was painting. His paintings included humorous and religious themes, portraits and ships.

Survivors include his wife; a son, Fred Hauser of Tel Aviv, Israel. and three grandchildren. ✓
