HAUSMANN, GERHARD

Gerhard Hausmann

VA clinical pharmacist formerly owner of the Stork Pharmacy

WARWICK — Gerhard Hausmann, 62, of 2320 Post Road, a clinical pharmacist at the Veterans Administration Medical Center for six years, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of the late Barbara R. (Goldberg) Hausmann.

Born in Germany, he was a son of the late Hugo and Lili (Rosenthal) Hausmann. He had lived in Providence before moving to Warwick 35 years ago.

Mr. Hausmann owned the former Stork Pharmacy in Warwick from 1955 to 1972. He also was a pharmacist at the former Adams Drug Store in Warwick and Park Drug in Johnston.

He was a 1953 graduate of the Rhode Island College of Pharmacy, now the University of Rhode Island College of Pharmacy. He was a member of the Rhode Island Pharmacists Association and the American Associaton of Hospital Pharmacists.

Mr. Hausmann was a founding member of Temple Am David. He was a member of the Rhode Island Philatelic Society and the American Association of Individual Investors.

He leaves two sons, Randolph Hausmann of Pawtucket and Geoffrey Hausmann of New London, Conn.; a daughter, Audrey Matteson of Coventry, and two grandchildren.

The funeral service was to be held today at noon at the Sugarman-Smith Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial was to be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
