MRS. LOUIS HAZEN

Funeral services for Mrs. Chaya (Adelberg) Hazen, one of the oldest residents of Providence, who died Sunday at the Jewish Home for the Aged, 99 Hillside Avenue, were held the following day at the Max Sugarman Funeral Home. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

Mrs. Hazen, who was 104 years old, was the widow of Louis Hazen. She was born in Vlodavka, Russia, in 1854, a daughter of the late Hyman and Edith Adelberg. She came to this country in 1911 and lived in Pawtucket until moving to the Jewish Home in 1940.

Mrs. Hazen was the oldest resident of the home and had also lived there longer than any other resident. Until recently, she was alert and active, and took a lively interest in all the home's activities.

She is survived by a son, Harry Hazen of Pawtucket; two daughters, Mrs. Morris Vine of Central Falls and Mrs. William Shlevin of Cranston; 15 grandchildren and several great-grand and great-great-grandchildren. ✓
