HAZEN, MORRIS

Pawtucket

PJ 8-12-2000

MORRIS HAZEN, 88, of Pleasant Street, co-owner of the former New York Furniture, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital, Providence.

He was the husband of Bertha (Brill) Hazen. Born in Central Falls, a son of the late Harry and Fannie Goldie (Fefferman) Hazen, he was a lifelong resident of Rhode Island, and a winter resident of Hallandale, Fla., for the last 30 years.

He was the co-owner of the former New York Furniture and the former co-owner of the New Yorker Motor Lodge in East Providence.

He was a past president of Ohawe Shalom Synagogue, and a member of Temple Emanuel in Providence, the Hallandale Jewish Center and its Men's Club, and of Bnai Brith.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Irwin Hazen of Bristol; a sister, Rose Alberts of Cranston; a brother, Leonard Hazen of Narragansett; and many grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He was the father of the late Carl Hazen and brother of the late Edith Shaffer, Minnie and Sarah Schuster, and Terry Soren.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. in Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St. at Fourth Street, Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
