HELFAND,
DR HENRY

PJB 12-27-03

DR. HENRY HELFAND, 96, of Philadelphia, formerly of Woonsocket, a retired dentist, died Wednesday in Philadelphia.

He was the husband of Beatrice (Flaschner) Helfand. Born Dec. 12, 1907, in Woonsocket, he was the son of the late Louis and Esther Helfand.

Dr. Helfand practiced dentistry in Woonsocket for more than 48 years, retiring in 1979.

He was a 1930 graduate of Tufts University Dental School. He served as past president of the Lions Club and as past president of the Woonsocket Dental Society.

Besides his wife, he leaves a daughter, Lois Licht of Philadelphia; 11 grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren. He was the father of the late Barbara Levin.

Graveside services will be held tomorrow at 11:30 a.m. at B'nai Israel Cemetery, Woonsocket.