YORA HERMAN

PROVIDENCE — Yora Herman, 85, a resident of the Jewish Home for the Aged, 99 Hillside Ave., died Thursday, September 6, at the home. She was the widow of Sidney Herman.

Born in Russia, a daughter of the late Joseph and Reva (Salmon) Tabin, she had lived in Providence since 1986, previously residing in New York City, Nashville, Tenn., and Miami Beach, Fla.

Mrs. Herman had been a couturier's assistant in New York City in the 1920s.

She leaves three grandsons, Richard and Steven Katzoff, both of Providence, and Kenneth Katzoff of Berkley, Calif.; and a great-grandson.

Graveside services were held Sunday, September 9, in Temple Cemetery, Nashville, Tenn. Arrangements coordinated by Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence.
