PJ-1/17/82

Paul Heymann

PROVIDENCE — Paul Heymann, 72, of Century Village, Boca Raton, Fla., a life insurance underwriter for 40 years, currently associated with the Bankers National Life Insurance Co., died yesterday at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of the late Marion R. (Soforenko) Heymann.

Born in Simmern, Germany, a son of the late Ferdinand and Matilda (Israel) Heymann, he had previously lived in Providence 45 years.

Mr. Heymann was a member of the Million Dollar Round Table.

He leaves a daughter, Maryjane Heymann of Providence; a son, Michael A. Heymann of Hartford; three brothers, Eric Heymann of Chicago, William Heymann of White Plains, N.Y., and Herbert Heymann of Hallandale, Fla.; two sisters, Mrs. Rosel Kroll of Hallandale and Mrs. Ruth Rogers of Lake Tahoe, Nev.; and two grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held at 11 a.m. tomorrow at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

HEYMANN, PAUL