THERESA HEYWOOD

PROVIDENCE — Theresa Heywood, 83, of 4658 Bougainville Drive, Lauderdale-by-the-Sea, Fla., died October 9, 1988 at the Charlesgate Nursing Center where she had been a patient for one week.

Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Jacob and Franny (Schwartz) Schmelz, she moved to Florida nine years ago.

Mrs. Heywood was a bookkeeper for 49 years for the former American Chemical Works, founded by her father, before retiring in 1968. She was a member of Temple Beth-El and its Sisterhood. She was a volunteer worker at the Veterans Administration Medical Center. She was a member of the Women's Associations for the Jewish Home for the Aged, Miriam Hospital, and a member of the Majestic Guild.

She leaves a sister, Julianna Wolkoff of Providence.

A funeral service was held at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial was in the Congregation Sons of Israel and David Cemetery.
