HILLMAN, Anne

Barrington

ANNE HILLMAN, 86, of 42 Ferry Lane, a teacher in the Pawtucket and Providence School Departments for a total of 13 years before retiring in 1969, died Saturday at Miriam Hospital. She was the widow of Dr. Harold S. Hillman, a dentist.

Born in Kiev, Russia, now the Ukraine, a daughter of the late William and Annie (Grumspol) Chernick, she lived in Pawtucket for many years before moving to Barrington 28 years ago.

Mrs. Hillman taught at the Fairlawn School in Pawtucket, and the Windmill Street School and the Nathanael Greene Middle School, both in Providence. She also taught basic adult education and Americanization in Providence for many years. She was a graduate of the former Rhode Island College of Education, now Rhode Island College. She received her master's degree in education from Brown University in 1960.

She was a member of Temple Habonim, and was a former member of Congregation Ohawe Sholom in Pawtucket. She was a past president of the Pawtucket Hadassah, and the League of Women Voters. She was a member of Great Decisions and the Great Books Society. She was active in directing community theater in the Pawtucket area.

Mrs. Hillman leaves two sons, U.S. Bankruptcy Court Judge William C. Hillman of Boston, and Providence, and Dr. Richard Hillman, M.D., of Columbia, Md.; two daughters, Polly Zacks of Barrington, and Nancy Hillman Aroche, with whom she made her home; a sister, Mildred Varney of Danielson, Conn.; 11 grandchildren, and 2 great-grandsons. She was the sister of the late Irwin, Harry and Joseph Chernick, and Rachael Solmer.

The funeral will be held today at 10 a.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery in Warwick.
