Barrington

JAMI H. HIRSCH, 24, of 14 Evergreen St., an honor student, died yesterday at home.

Born in Lawrence, Kan., a daughter of Fern Rouleau and Steven Hirsch of Barrington, she had lived in Providence for the past few years until this month, when she moved in with her parents.

She was a graduate of Barrington High School, where she was a member of the National Honor Society. She attended Skidmore College and the New England School of Photography.

She enjoyed travel, scuba diving, art and music.

Besides her parents, she leaves a sister, Kelli Hirsch of Santa Barbara, Calif.; a brother, David Hirsch of Hilo, Hawaii; a half-sister, Leah Hirsch of Barrington; a stepsister, Jennifer Rouleau of East Providence; her stepfather, Bob Rouleau; her stepmother, Susan Hirsch; and her maternal grandmother, Alice Singer of Sun City, Ariz. She was the granddaughter of the late Ray Singer, and Maria and Hellmuth Hirschheimer.

A memorial service will be celebrated tomorrow at 4 p.m. in Temple Habonim, 165 New Meadow Rd.
