BRADENTON, Fla. — Robert Hochberg, 79, of 4240 Ironwood Circle, Apt. 506WA, a businessman, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital after an illness of one week. He was the husband of Gertrude (Meth) Hochberg, retired vice president for public affairs at Bryant College.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Jacob and Anna (Lisker) Hochberg, he moved to East Providence two years ago and was in the process of completing a move to Bradenton at the time of his death.

Mr. Hochberg was owner of Robert's Medical Supply Co., Providence. He graduated from Boston University in 1926. He served in the Marine Corps in World War II.

He was a member of the board of trustees of Temple Beth-El and was the leader and a founder, 27 years ago, of the daily Minyan prayer service, unique in the Jewish Reform movement.

He was active in the United Way organization, from which he received a special citation several years ago. For many years he was a leader in the Narragansett Council, Boy Scouts of America. He was a member of the Chesed Shel Emes Society and a worker in the Jewish Federation of Rhode Island.

Mr. Hochberg also leaves a daughter, Erica Stern of Newton, Mass.; a son, Dr. Mark S. Hochberg, M.D., of Short Hills, N.J.; a brother, Benjamin Hochberg of Miami Beach, Fla., and three grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Temple Beth-El, Orchard Avenue. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
