HOCHMAN, Edith

PJ 11-4-1999

EDITH S. HOCHMAN, 79, of North Course Drive, Pompano Beach, Fla., a fiscal clerk at Davies Vocational School, Lincoln, for four years before retiring, died Saturday at home. She was the wife of the late James Hochman.

Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Hyman and Dora (Tubin) Schoenberg, she had lived in Cranston for many years before moving to Florida.

Mrs. Hochman had been an office worker at the former Rhode Island Junior College, now Community College of Rhode Island, for seven years.

She was a member of Order of the Eastern Star, Chapter 1, Providence, the 4-H Club of Oaklawn Grange, the Warwick Historical Society, the Cranston Chapter of Hadassah, and the former Temple Beth Israel, Providence, and its Sisterhood. She was a former Cub Scout den mother.

She leaves a son, Howard L. Hochman of Gaithersberg, Md.; a brother, Leonard Schoenberg of Cranston; a sister, Lilyan S. Weinberg of Pompano Beach; and two grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Milton Schoenberg and Rose Goldstein.

A graveside service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Post Road, Warwick.

HOCHMAN, Edith S. (Schoenberg)

October 30, 1999. Residence 2900 North Course Dr., Pompano Beach, FL. Beloved Wife of the late James Hochman. Devoted Mother of Howard L. and Elaine Hochman of Gaithersberg, MD. Dear Sister of Leonard Schoenberg of Cranston, Lilyan S. Weinberg of Pompano Beach, FL and the late Milton Schoenberg and Rose Goldstein. Loving Grandmother of Matthew and Jennifer. Graveside Funeral Services Friday at 11 a.m. in LINCOLN PARK CEMETERY, Post Rd., Warwick. In lieu of flowers contributions in her memory may be made to your favorite charity. Shiva will be private. Arrangements by SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave, Cranston