Hodosh, George

SOMERSET

HODOSH, GEORGE

95, longtime resident of Somerset, passed away on Saturday, January 20, 2018 at the Somerset Ridge Center. He was the husband of the late Mae (Schraer) Hodosh. George was born in Providence, RI and was the son of the late Hyman and Julia (Rudolph) Hodosh. George served his country honorably in the US Army during World War II. George built his family home in 1953 and established George Hodosh Associates- Architects, which he owned and operated with his son Jonathan for many years. George left his mark on many local buildings in the South Coast area, and the company continues to operate today in New York State. He served as past president of the Kiwanis Club, Free Masons, and was a member of the AmVets Post# 72 and the Little Theater for many years. George loved music, theatre, traveling with his son, spending time with his family, and a good glass of wine in the evening. George was a person of deep faith, but always believed what will be will be. He will be fondly remembered and deeply missed.He is survived by his sons, Jonathan B. Hodosh and his wife Barbara of Montebello, NY and Lance E. Hodosh and his wife Gayle of Swansea; grandchildren, Shana, Shelby, Joshua and Rachel; a niece, Linda Killian and nephew Jeffrey Greenberg. He was the brother of the late Leonard Jack Hodosh and Rhoda Greenberg-Kenney. His family will receive relatives and friends on Monday January 22, 2018 from 10am to 11am with his Funeral Service following at 11am in the Hathaway Community Home for Funerals 900 Buffinton St., Somerset. Burial will follow with Military Honors in the Hebrew Cemetery, Fall River. Donations in George's memory may be made to the Joslin Diabetes Center, 1 Joslin Pl., Boston, MA 02215. To sign the online guestbook, or for facility and cemetery directions please visit www.hathawayfunerals.com or call 508-673-0781. Memorial Observance will be privately held.