HOFFMAN, HARRY

HARRY HOFFMAN

Funeral services for Harry Hoffman, 73, of 1403 Warwick Avenue, Warwick, who died Sunday after an illness of one year, were held Tuesday at the Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

The husband of Anna (Jacobs) Hoffman, he was born in Providence on June 22, 1898, a son of the late Max and Esther (Cohen) Hoffman. He was graduated from the old Technical High School, class of 1915, and attended Brown University for three years before enlisting in the Army during World War I and serving in France. He was a founder and partner of the Manna-Hoffman Automotive Company. He retired 10 years ago.

He was a member of Temple Beth Am, a past department commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and received an award for 50 years of continuous membership. He was a past commander and treasurer of the Connell Post VFW, a past commander of Jewish War Veterans Post #23, and a member of the Rhode Island State Department, Jewish War Veterans.

He was the chairman of the VFW Children's Home in Grand Rapids, Michigan, a life member of Redwood Lodge, F&AM, the Palestine Shriners, a 50-year member of the United Commercial Travelers, a past president of the Rhode Island Trowel Club and was currently serving as treasurer of the Hebrew Free Loan Association of Providence.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two sons, Morton of Rivervale, New Jersey, and Burton Hoffman of Melbourne, Florida; six grandchildren, and a great-grandchild.
