HOLLAND, Ida

RI, HER 10-14-66

MRS. CHARLES N. HOLLAND

Funeral services for Mrs. Ida (Levine) Holland, 78, formerly of 73 Pembroke Avenue, who died Sunday after a two-year illness, were held that day at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery. She was the widow of Charles N. Holland.

Born in Latvia on May 18, 1888, she was a daughter of the late Isaac and Bessie Levine. She had lived in Providence for more than 62 years.

She was a member of the First Odessa Beneficial Association, Temple Beth David, Congregation Sons of Zion, the Jewish Home for the Aged, and Miriam Hospital Women's Association.

She is survived by four sons, Maj. Gen. Leonard Holland, state adjutant general, Hye H. Holland of Detroit, Mich., Harry Holland of Albany, N.Y., and Marvin S. Holland of Pawtucket, attorney and president of the E. Rosen Company of Pawtucket; three daughters, Mrs. Benjamin Weiner of Providence, Mrs. Benjamin Stone of Swampscott, Mass., and Mrs. Samuel J. Kolodney of Pawtucket; three sisters, Mrs. Anna Rich and Mrs. Esmond Borod, both of Providence, and Mrs. Henry Marmorstein of Jersey City, N.J.; two brothers, Samuel Levin and Paul Levin, both of Providence; 10 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Bearers, all grandsons, were Bruce S., Glenn A., Irwin and Richard G. Holland.

Attending the funeral were Governor Chafee, Mayor Joseph A. Doorley Jr., Carmino Maisano, representing Sen. John O. Pastore and Russell J. Boyle, president of the Providence City Council.
