Julian Holland

CRANSTON — Julian Holland, 65, of 199 Deerfield Rd. died Friday at Rhode Island Hospital. He was the husband of Simone (Brumberg) Holland.

Born in New York City, a son of the late Emanuel and Beatrice (Aug) Holland, he lived in Cranston for 28 years. He previously lived in Providence. Mr. Holland was founder, and president of the Art Mold Products Co., and the Seaboard Advertising Co., from 1950 to 1966, and consultant to both companies from 1966 to 1971, when he retired. He was an honorary trustee of Temple Torat Yisrael, a member of the Jewish Federation of Rhode Island, the B'nai B'rith, the Specialty Advertising Association and the Rhode Island Ad Club. He was an Army veteran of World War II.

Besides his wife he leaves a daughter, Sherri Holland of Cranston; a brother, Harold Holland of East Greenwich, and a sister, Mrs. Wilma Safire of Warwick.

A funeral service will be held today at 3 p.m. at Temple Torat Yisrael, Park Avenue. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
